

11:21:48 From Marie Brodsky : My student team at UMD is currently organizing a series of "WISE Spaces" around the community for older adults to socialize and get a discount at various community spots like cafes and bookstores and we're excited to make some of these intergenerational too! First ones are happening next week ðŸ˜Š Would love to collaborate with any of you who are interested and invite your members to join!

11:24:17 From Chelsea Wheeler-MDOA : What tools and methods are you using for polling to get the feed back on the types of events people are intrested in?

11:24:22 From Marie Brodsky : Also - currently helping teach a class for ~80 UMD students that is entirely focused on intergenerational connection and how we can create more of it in our communities. It's a big research project for them so I would be excited to share with you all the findings and ideas that come out of it!

11:35:43 From Sophia, CHV (they/them) : Thank you!

Thanks to everyone who asked!

11:57:04 From Paula O. : Has anyone in a "traditional" Village found any resistance from any members re: encouraging intergenerational activities? Any concern that it may re-direct the focus away from senior needs, especially when financial/personnel/volunteer resources are already tight?
